Open Arms /Learning Trades are thoughtfully designed provisions that effectively address the diverse needs of a wide range of students. It offers a nurturing, inclusive, and welcoming environment in which students are supported to thrive both academically and personally. The atmosphere is one of warmth, respect, and encouragement, which contributes significantly to the positive experiences and outcomes of the young people they serve.

Each individual class within Open Arms /Learning Trades is strategically tailored to align with the unique requirements of the students. This personalised approach ensures that learners receive targeted academic support while also benefiting from high-quality pastoral care. A strong emphasis is placed on holistic development, fostering both educational progress and emotional well-being.

There are clearly established procedures in place that prioritise student safety at all times. These protocols are rigorously implemented and regularly reviewed to maintain a secure learning environment. In addition, comprehensive attendance strategies are employed to promote regular participation, with structured plans in place to address any barriers to engagement. The commitment to consistent attendance is matched by a clear vision for academic achievement, making Open Arms/ Learning Trades a provision that champions success in every sense.
